

Extreme Trailer, LLC Receives 100% Safety Award

Dover, OH - April 6, 2017 – Extreme Trailers, LLC Manufacturing, an innovative industrial manufacturer of commercial flatbed semitrailers was awarded the 2016 "100% Award" from The Stark County Safety Council and the Ohio Bureau of Worker's Compensation. Les Smith, president and CEO of Extreme Trailers made the announcement.

“We are very honored to receive such a meaningful award here at Extreme Trailers. Our team of committed, skilled professionals work hard each and every day to serve customers with excellence. Going all year without a lost-time accident is a credit to their dedication and perseverance. Our VP of Operations, Don Hayes and his team of hard-working men and women can be very proud to achieve such recognition.”

The 100% Award recognizes companies that worked the entire year without a lost-time accident. Other awards to be presented at the ceremony include the Group Award, for each company that had the lowest incident in each group, the Achievement Award, for each company that decreased its incident rate by at least 25 percent from the previous year, and a Special Award for each company that has accumulated at least 500,000 hours and operated at least six months without a lost-time injury within a year. This year's awards ceremony will be held on Thursday, April 13, 2017 at the Skyland Pines Event Center. The keynote speaker is Sarah Morrison, Administrator/CEO of the Ohio Bureau of Worker's Compensation who was appointed by Ohio Governor John Kasich.
